1. REGISTRATION OBLIGATIONS.

When you are registering a mydlink account to use our online services, you need to provide some required personal information and proceed with related verifications, as may be required by the communication regulations and statutes of different countries. You agree to: (i) provide true, accurate, current, and complete information about yourself. (ii) complete additional verification of your personal information as may be required. (iii) maintain and promptly update your registration data to keep it true, accurate, current, and complete. D-Link has the right to call you directly to provide assistance should you encounter problems using our products or services. Accurate information is very important for us to resolve your problems and improve our service. You are responsible for all liability that may arise from your failure to provide true, accurate, current and complete information and to maintain and promptly update such information. If you provide any information that is, or we have reasonable grounds to believe is, untrue, inaccurate, misleading, not current, or incomplete, we may suspend or terminate your account and/or services, or any portion thereof.

2. ACCOUNT, PASSWORD, AND SECURITY.

If you use any part of the mydlink online services that requires a login email or password, then you are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of that email and password and for restricting access to your computer, and you agree that you are solely responsible for any liability or damages resulting from your failure to maintain that confidentiality, and for all activities that occur under your account or password. You agree to (i) immediately notify D-Link of any unauthorized use of your account or password or any other breach of security, and (ii) ensure that you exit from your account at the end of each session of online services. D-Link reserves the right to take any and all action, as it deems necessary or reasonable, to ensure the security of your account and your online services, including, without limitation, terminating your account, changing your password, or requesting additional information to authorize transactions on your account. D-Link will not be liable for any loss or damage arising from your failure to comply with this Section.
